FREDERIC KELLOGG

Sightlines

Fred Kellogg will exhibit new watercolors painted this year in and around Rockland, Thomaston, and from the islands in Penobscot Bay. Many of these works come from the artist's copious sketch book pages – his on the go sketches with notes and bare impressions turn into finished icons of what he loves about living in Maine. Kellogg has exhibited in Washington DC, Richmond VA, and Maine, including Gallery 68 in Belfast, the O'Farrell Gallery in Brunswick, and the Nan Mulford Gallery. His work is represented in the permanent collections of the Farnsworth Museum and the Portland Museum of Art, MBNA Bank, laws and financial firms in Boston and Washington, and private collections throughout the country. This is his first solo show with the Caldbeck.
